

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2469 - SB 2566

February 10, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Changes statutes related to driver license restoration fees. A single $65 fee would be paid per traffic incident rather than for each violation involved in the incident. Restoration for non-moving violations would be reduced from $65 to $35. Restoration for mandatory revocation offenses would be increased from $65 to $100. Adds driving while under the influence to the list of offenses that require filing proof of insurance in effect at the time of arrest. Requires courts to submit for license suspension action within six months of the violation or the department would take no action.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $126,800 Recurring
$36,000 One-Time
Increase State Revenues - $236,040 Net Impact

Assumes that two clerical staff will be needed by the Department of Safety to handle additional notices and correspondence related to DUI proof of insurance.
